Wojnicz is one of the oldest cities in the south-eastern Poland. Before it received civic rights (probably in 1239), it had been a castellan's settlement until the 12th century. The city urban arrangement has been preserved in an unchanged shape to the present times and is listed in the registry of the Małopolskie Voivodship's historic monuments. The most valuable parts of the city: the centre of Wojnicz (Market Square), St. Leonard wooden church from the break of the 15th and the 16th centuries, St. Laurel church from the middle of the 15th century, a wooden belfry from the 16th century, Palace of Dąbbski Family from 1876 with a renaissance style park, ruins of the medieval Trzewlin castle from the 14th century, scarps and moat remains. On the 1st of January, Wojnicz regained its civic rights, lost 72 years ago.

The Wojnicz Commune is provided with ideal conditions for relaxation In a healthy and picturesque area among forests of Biadoliny Radłowskie, as well as the southern part, which is hilly and is overlooking the picturesque landscape. The more to the south of the commune, the more attractive the area is for tourists and relaxation. There is the River Dunajec flowing through, a paradise for anglers, as well as water and sunbathing enthusiasts. Enthusiasts of angling in quiet water should visit Dębina Łętowska or Olszyny, where former gravel pits are situated along the River Dunajec and are stocked with the most common fish by the Polish Angling Association. Safe banks that allow angling at night are an advantage of the areas. Panieńska Góra is a nature reserve in Wielka Wieś created to preserve natural stands of rare species of orchids in Poland: orchid pallens and lady orchid. The area of th reserve is provided with 271 species of plants, including 21 protected species. In addition to that, interesting species of fungi, insects, reptiles and birds have been observed here. The name of the hill probably derives from events associated with the fight of the unfaithful wives with their husbands returning from the trip to Kiev in the 11th century, according to the most famous legend of Wojnicz. That is the place where medieval knight's castle Trzewlin is situated. Blue path 7,5 km long runs from Wojnicz through Więckowice to Panieńska Góra.

Wojnicz is also home town to the Photographic Society of Wojnicz Fotum. It is a group of photographers, whose main activities are focused around the art photography promotion. The society annually organizes the Wojnicz International Salon of Photography. Furthermore, organizes lectures and meetings, internal photo competitions, photo shoots, classes aimed at developing techniques of traditional and digital photography. Each year the society organizes collective and individual exhibitions for its members. Below there are presented works of Mariusz Kurek, a member of the photographic society. His exhibition titled "Wibracje" (Vibes) was recently opened in the Findrówka Gallery in Wojnicz.
